

Vaccination Schedule

Vaccination	Puppy Series	Adult Series	Booster Requirement
Canine Distemper, Adenovirus, Parainfluenza & Parvovirus	Administered at 8, 12, & 16 weeks of age. Generally a series of 3 separate visits.	Administered in a series of 2 separate injections for complete immunity.	Annually
Bordetella	Administered after 8 weeks of age. Given prior to boarding, dog parks, grooming, etc.	Administered after 8 weeks of age. Given prior to boarding, dog parks, grooming, etc.	Annually, however some boarding facilities require every 6 months.
Lyme	Administered at 12 & 16 weeks of age.	Administered in a series of 2 separate injections for complete immunity.	Annually
Leptospirosis	Administered at 12 & 16 weeks of age.	Administered in a series of 2 separate injections for complete immunity.	Annually
Canine Rabies (Required by Law)	Administered at 16 weeks of age.	Administered as 1 injection.	Annually for the first booster, then depending on the legalities, can potentially be every 3 years after the initial booster